JOURNAL EXPERIENCE

AMBASSADORS

WE ARE SENTWE NO LONGER LIVE FOR OURSELVES*WE HAVE A MESSAGE OF RECONCILIATION

An ambassador is a representative of a specified activity or country. It comes from the Latin word “ambactus” which means servant (Oxford Languages)

We were sent by Jesus to proclaim the Good News, He has equipped us for our task and will not stop developing us until he has completed the good work he has begun in us. 2 Corinthians 5:20 calls us “ambassadors for Christ”. We therefore represent Christ here on earth.

No longer do we live for ourselves, but we live to serve Christ.

A MESSAGE OF RECONCILIATION

As we put on shoes, we should be ready to tell others about the Good News:

That God reconciled us to himself through Jesus's blood on the cross.

This is for everyone who believes in Christ.

Colossians 1:21-22 KJV “And you, that were sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblameable and unrepentable in his sight:”

May you have a new revelation of your purpose here on earth and step into your role as Christ's ambassador!
